

The Burnett Sisters Band—2025 IBMA Momentum Band of the Year Nominee—delivers an electrifying mix of bluegrass, old-time, folk, swing, and classic country with unmatched harmony, artistry, and stage presence. Siblings Anissa, Sophia, and Anneli Burnett of Boone, NC, along with UK-born guitarist Geary Allen, are award-winning multi-instrumentalists whose accolades include top honors at the MerleFest Band Competition, Galax Fiddlers Convention, and countless festival stages. Signed to Pinecastle Records and represented by Wilson Pickins Promotions, their shows blend driving bluegrass standards, old-time fiddle tunes, heartfelt originals, soaring gospel, and even flatfoot dance—always honoring tradition while adding fresh energy. As educators at East Tennessee State University and in the Watauga JAM program, they nurture the next generation of roots musicians. Touring for over 13 years across the U.S., Canada, Ireland, and England, this chart-topping band captivates audiences worldwide with authenticity, chemistry, and timeless sound.
